

Coach Profile

Marius Hansa

Nationality: German

Residence: Wiesbaden

Languages: German and English

Areas of expertise:

- Management and team coaching
- Marketing & business development
- Mergers & acquisitions
- Career development
- Acquisition

Corporate and Management Experience

Marius has over 20 years of experience in communication and marketing where he was in leading positions such as Client Service Director, Head of New Business, Managing Director and Owner. He is known for being fair, ethical, empathetic and an excellent listener – all qualities that are carried into his coaching. Marius has been involved in challenging markets, personal development, mergers & acquisitions, managing change, career development, team management, acquisition and business development. It is Marius' aim to use the 1-Focus approach to create flow in people and organizations, discover hidden potentials, develop strengths and reach demanding goals.

Training

- Trained facilitator, Systemic Constellations for Organizational Change
- Listed consultant at RKW – Center for Business Efficiency and Innovation
- Certified NLP Practitioner, DVNLP, Stuttgart

Coaching Education and Certification

- Certified Business Coach
- Board member, International Coach Federation (ICF)
- Head of Frankfurt Chapter, ICF

Coaching Approach

Marius brings to coaching life and work experiences which are similar to the challenges faced by managers today: challenging relationships, corporate development, mergers & acquisitions, managing change, stress, and burnout, career challenges, improving/maintaining health and wellness, and time management, to name a few. His coaching and facilitation are solution-oriented and forward moving in a way that best serves the individual needs of each client. He creates an atmosphere that is unconditionally supportive and provides accountability without judgment. Marius demonstrates a positive regard, encouragement, energy and sensitivity - with some light-heartedness and fun thrown in for good measure! Marius coaches leaders, managers and teams who want to take their performance to the next level or even higher. Marius provides for an open-minded atmosphere, gives honest feedback, inspires with creative attention, catalyzes new ideas and alternatives, helps to identify goals, and gives trust and assistance for personal and professional development.

Other Activities

Lecturer in leadership and business administration at a private university
Workshop facilitator and trainer for managers in the areas of stress management, business communication and rhetoric, presentation skills, work-life balance